

Genesis 45:16 – 46:30 – Reunited

Joseph redeems his family and prepares a place for them in Egypt.

Review of the previous lesson – Read Genesis 44:1 – 45:15

What is the final test that Joseph gives his brothers in Genesis 44, and how does Judah respond?

What does Joseph reveal to them in Genesis 45:1-15, and what does he tell them to do?

New lesson – Read Genesis 45:16 – 46:30

What news goes through Pharaoh's house in Genesis 45:16, and how does he respond?

What does Pharaoh command in Genesis 45:17-18, and what does he promise?

What does Pharaoh command Joseph in Genesis 45:19?

And what does he promise him in Genesis 45:20?

How does Joseph prepare his brothers for their trip in Genesis 45:21-22?

What does he send his father in Genesis 45:23?

And what does he tell them in Genesis 45:24?

What happens in Genesis 45:25-26?

How is Jacob finally convinced in Genesis 45:27?

What does he decide in Genesis 45:28?

Read Genesis 46:1-3. What does God reveal to Israel in verse 3?

What does he assure him in Genesis 46:4?

In summary, what does Genesis 46:5-7 inform us?

List the names of Jacob's wives again and their children according to what you memorized in the previous chapters.

Read Genesis 46:8-15. How many descendants are there of Jacob and Leah now?

Read Genesis 46:16-18. How many descendants are there of Jacob and Zilpah now?

Read Genesis 46:19-22. How many descendants are there of Jacob and Rachel now?

Read Genesis 46:23-25. How many descendants are there of Jacob and Bilhah now?

Read Genesis 46:26-27. What does verse 27 announce?

What does Jacob do in Genesis 46:28?

What does Joseph do in Genesis 46:29?

How does Israel his father respond in Genesis 46:30?

This reunion seems a little like another meeting, many centuries later in the New Testament. Briefly, what was an elderly man named Simeon waiting for in Luke 2:25-26?

What does the Spirit direct him to do in Luke 2:27-28?

In summary, what has he finally seen according to Luke 2:29-32?

How does another Joseph and his wife respond in Luke 2:33?